Isherwood:

Flannery Climate Commission report is a galactic fraud

“The Tim Flannery Climate Commission’s The Critical Decade report is an act of desperation by fanatical genocidalists. It is sheer quackery, with the clear intent to stampede the population into accepting depopulation, i.e. mass murder,” Citizens Electoral Council leader Craig Isherwood said today.

“Flannery’s report was designed to portray the entire debate over global warming as ‘settled’, and to finger the mass of human beings as the culprits for this non-existent global warming—the same human beings whom his patron Prince Philip regards as sheep to be culled,” he said. “So Flannery’s job is to baffle the public with unscientific statistical and computer model bullsh*t!

“Flannery’s report is a galactic fraud!” Mr Isherwood charged. “What is stunning is that the ‘science’ is presented as if our Earth exists in totally empty space, by itself, mostly unaffected by any other forces than man’s supposedly ‘destructive’ carbon dioxide emissions.

“This galactic fraud is immediately exposed by anyone following the real science work being produced by Lyndon LaRouche’s basement research team on cosmic radiation. (Go to :http://cecaust.com.au/main.asp?sub=articles&id=Background_science_economics.html)

“Simply put,” Mr Isherwood said, “there is no such thing as ‘empty space’, except maybe in Tim Flannery’s head.

“Instead, our Earth, for billions of years has been continually bombarded by huge forces associated with the various types of cosmic radiation emanating from that giant fusion reactor called our Sun, but also from the furthest reaches of our galaxy through supernovae, like the Crab Nebula.

“Over this long history, our Earth is also shielded from these forces, in varying degrees and effectiveness by constantly changing gravitation, magnetic and electric fields, about which we know relatively little.

“Real scientists acknowledged the major role of cosmic radiation in our developing biosphere; for example, the great Russian biogeochemist Vladimir Vernadsky 100 years ago wrote in his definitive work, The Biosphere:

‘The face of the Earth viewed from celestial space presents a unique appearance, different from all other heavenly bodies. The surface that separates the planet from the cosmic medium is the biosphere, visible principally because of light from the sun, although it also receives an infinite number of other radiations from space, of which only a small fraction are visible to us. We hardly realize the variety and importance of these rays, which cover a huge range of wavelengths ... A new character is imparted to the planet by this powerful cosmic force. The radiations that pour upon the Earth cause the biosphere to take on properties unknown to lifeless planetary surfaces, and thus transform the face of the Earth. Activated by radiation, the matter of the biosphere collects and redistributes solar energy, and converts it ultimately into free energy capable of doing work on Earth.” [emphasis added]

Mr Isherwood continued, “As reported comprehensively on our website, our Earth is part of a very dynamic, high energy and dangerous galaxy, which is just one of billions of galaxies. Currently, we face a real threat, as opposed to the hysterical nonsense made about increased carbon dioxide levels (http://cecaust.com.au/main.asp?sub=releases&id=2009_03_06_CO2.html), and that is the possibility of some extinction event, highlighted recently by the spate of large earthquakes and increased volcanism around the world, coinciding with the 62 million year cycle of our solar system ‘bob’ above and below the plane of our Milky Way Galaxy.

“While real scientists, starved of funding, are fighting hard to perfect ways to predict such events, the British-dominated science ‘establishment’ lies that they are unpredictable, and instead splurge billions on computer programs to fabricate the global warming fraud.”

Mr Isherwood concluded, “Accepting the claims of climate scientists on faith, as Tim Flannery demands, drags society back to the Dark Ages of astrologer priesthoods. Strauss-Kahn falls in Olympian brawl over bailout—go with Glass-Steagall!

A vicious brawl has erupted in the boardrooms of central banks and government treasuries over whether to respond to the new wave of global meltdown with another round of hyperinflationary bailout—or not—which is why Dominique Strauss-Kahn has lost his job as the IMF's "Third World-rapist-in-chief".

Dominique Strauss-Kahn's antics in his hotel suite are not why he was arrested and thrown in the clink: he led the faction of financiers pushing for a last hurrah bailout before the whole system implodes, and thus has now been removed from the picture by those opposed to that suicidal lunacy.

U.S. physical economist Lyndon LaRouche, the world's leading economic forecaster and originator of the call for a global Glass-Steagall banking reorganisation to replace the bailouts, declared on 21st May that Strauss-Kahn's downfall changes the course of history:

"We're now having a general collapse, of the entire international financial-monetary system. It is an absolutely assured collapse ... if certain changes are not made now, and they seem to become likely because of what happened to Strauss-Kahn in New York City, which has changed the course of history in a very significant degree. Because he was supposed to be setting into motion the effort to save [U.S. Federal Reserve Chairman Ben] Bernanke, [U.S. Treasury Secretary Timothy] Geithner, and Obama, from delivery to Hell, by pushing through another round of bailout in the international system. Now, what happened to him in New York, was simply an attempt to ensure that there would not be another bailout of this global financial system ..."

LaRouche continued, "The entire system is now going to crash in one of two ways: Either by some unlikely prospect, the backers of Obama, Geithner, and Bernanke will survive this—in which case all Hell busts loose, or they won't survive it, in which the situation becomes much more interesting. And what happened to Strauss-Kahn, is an absolutely crucial part of this turning point which has been reached in the past two weeks ... Now, there are two kinds of collapses: There's either the collapse of the international speculative system, or there's the collapse of the world economy, and a general genocidal collapse of civilisation globally. Those are your two options, and we're at the point where that decision, and only that decision, has any significance."

Glass-Steagall NOW!

Only a return to the 1933-99 Glass-Steagall Act, which protected savings banks from the gambling pirates in the investment banks of Wall Street and the City of London, will save the financial system from a 1923 Weimar Germany hyperinflationary implosion.

Glass-Steagall is back before the U.S. Congress in the form of House Resolution 1489 [<http://www.govtrack.us/congress/billtext.xpd?bill=h112-1489>], but Obama, who openly serves the City of London elite to whom he has spent the week genuflecting, is desperately trying to block it.

If patriots in the United States can win the fight for Glass-Steagall, it opens the way to rescue Australia's economy—which is facing a property bubble collapse and Ireland-style banking meltdown—through the enactment of the CEC's Homeowners and Bank Protection Bill 2008 [<http://www.cecaust.com.au/hbpa/>], and Commonwealth National Credit Bank Bill (explained in the CEC's book, What Australia Must Do to Survive the Depression).
