MI6 disinformation division conjures new 'evidence' for anniversary of MH17

The disinformation division of British intelligence, aka Rupert Murdoch's News Corp, has flooded the media on the first anniversary of the MH17 disaster with claims of new video proof that the pro-Russia rebels acknowledged responsibility for shooting down MH17.

News Corp claims to have a 17-minute video, shot by the first military unit on the scene; a 4 minute 13 second clip is available on news.com.au.

The only "proof", however, is not in the video, but in the power of suggestion that News Corp's media outlets use to get viewers to anticipate what the video shows.

Nowhere in the clip provided do the so-called rebels acknowledge shooting down MH17. The video shows them: shocked to find a passenger plane; incredulous that such a passenger plane was allowed to fly over the area; examining luggage to confirm that the passengers were civilians; openly documenting their examination on video, for the purpose of a subsequent investigation; and discussing reports they heard that paratroopers were seen jumping from the plane, and that a pilot was seen crawling away.

Without explanation, News Corp does not provide the full 17-minute video, only a purported transcript of the full 17 minutes. Again, however, nowhere in this transcript do the rebels acknowledge shooting down MH17. Rather, the transcript has them saying that a Ukraine military Sukhoi fighter jet shot down MH17, and that their forces shot down the Sukhoi, which they are looking for.

It is clear that British intelligence has turned to its trusty disinformation division at News Corp to turn the anniversary of the MH17 disaster into an excuse to escalate the British-Obama war drive against Russia. Remember, Murdoch's minions in News Corp's 172 newspapers around the world infamously ran the propaganda campaign about Saddam Hussein's fictitious WMDs which enabled Murdoch's buddies Tony Blair and Dick Cheney, and Cheney's puppet George W. Bush, to illegally invade Iraq in 2003, setting off the chain of events that have since spawned the horror of ISIS. News Corp has similarly spearheaded a campaign to personally demonise Vladimir Putin, so that ignorant Britons, Americans and Australians accept without question the actions of their governments that are pushing the world towards a thermonuclear war.

If war is to blame, the West started it

Nobody can claim that Russia shot down MH17. Therefore, the rationale for blaming Russia, expressed by Australia's Prime Minister Tony Abbott and Foreign Minister Julie Bishop, among others, is that Russia is to blame for the insurrection in Eastern Ukraine, and therefore bears responsibility for the resulting disaster.

However, using the very same rationale, the US and EU, and their supportive allies such as Australia, are to blame for the disaster, because they ran the neo-Nazi coup to overthrow the democratically-elected government of Ukraine in February-March 2014, which is the actual cause of the civil war. The US-EU orchestration of the coup is a matter of public record—Obama's neo-con Assistant Secretary of State Victoria Nuland openly pulled the strings. Their use of neo-Nazi gangs to hijack peaceful protests in Kiev for the purpose of executing the violent overthrow of the government is also a matter of public record. In subsequent elections, the neo-Nazis in the Right Sector and Svoboda have been shown to have very little public support, but they were given key posts in the new regime, including in the security apparatus, to root out and suppress all pro-Russian sentiment in Ukraine. The Russian-speaking populations in Eastern Ukraine are not "rebels", but resistance fighters against a Nazi takeover of their nation on behalf of a foreign power, just as the French Resistance fought the Nazi Vichy regime in WWII. The Australian government has not said a word against the Western-backed rise of Nazism in Ukraine.

The Western-installed Ukraine regime is one of five nations, including the Netherlands, Belgium, Malaysia and Australia, which are conducting the official "independent" investigation of the MH17 disaster. Ukraine's involvement demonstrates there is nothing independent about it; sadly, the same must be said for Australia's involvement, given the gratuitously hostile—recall "shirtfront"—posturing of Tony Abbott over the tragedy, on behalf of his Anglo-American superiors. Since the wreckage was removed from the crash site, only Dutch and British investigators have had access to the evidence, which Russia is protesting. According to the 15 July Sputnik News Russia's ambassador to the UN, Vitaly Churkin, charged, "The investigation is still ongoing, and we continue to advocate for international cooperation, which we, incidentally, do not see. We see that our experts are barred from these cases, and only occasionally are they given some information about how the investigation is going," Churkin said.

On this anniversary day, it is incumbent on all those who care about the victims and their families to reject the propaganda that is designed to perpetuate the wars that cause these disasters. The CEC is determined to expose and defeat the war agenda that is behind the tragic events in Ukraine—join us.

PETITION

Australia must secure its future by aligning with the BRICS in a new, just world economic order

TO THE HONOURABLE THE SPEAKER AND MEMBERS OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

This petition of the Citizens Electoral Council draws to the attention of the House the opportunity for Australia, and all nations, to participate in the process that the BRICS nations of Brazil, Russia, India, China, and South Africa have initiated: to create a new financial architecture for the world based on equitable and inclusive multilateral credit institutions that prioritise investment in physical economic development, instead of speculation.

The present, inequitable IMF-World Bank system is collapsing under the burden of hundreds of trillions of dollars of unpayable global debts and derivatives obligations, including the Australian banking system's derivatives exposure of more than $27 trillion. This is the legacy of decades of reckless financial speculation unleashed by IMF-enforced deregulation, and is the driver of the world's present strategic tensions which have increased the threat of a thermonuclear world war.

Through such new financial institutions as the $100 billion New Development Bank, the $100 billion Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank (AIIB), the $40 billion Silk Road Development Fund, the $20 billion Maritime Silk Road Fund, and the planned Shanghai Cooperation Organization (SCO) bank, the BRICS nations will direct massive investment in much-needed physical infrastructure projects on which all nations can collaborate, forging a basis for lasting global peace and economic prosperity.

We the undersigned therefore petition the House to commit Australia both to full participation in the AIIB, and to full support for the BRICS-initiated process of creating a new financial architecture for the world as the basis of a just economic order.
